OREGON RANCHER KILLS WOMAN; ENDS OWN LIFE

Cartwright Runs Amuck in Bye Valley, Murders Sister-in-Law Wounds William Powell.

BAKER, Ore, Friday, Aug. 15. Lawrence Cartwright and Mrs. George Cartwright, his sister-in-law, are dead and William Powell is probably fatally wounded as the result of a family quarrel which occurred at the home of the woman at Rye Valley yesterday, All are victims of a 28-caliber revolver in the hands of Lawrence Cartwright.

The trouble started just as the party was preparing to go huckleberrying. Cartwright in a rage whipped out his evolver and fired two shots at Mrs. Cartwright. She dropped dead. Turning upon Powell Cartwright shot him through the body. Powell jumped upon his horse, escaped the hall of bullets Cartwright, sent atter him, rode to the home of Richard Cartwright, three-quarters of a mile away, and collapsed.

M. H. de Young, of Chronicle, Announces Purchase Spreckels Property Which He Will Put Out of Business.

PUBLICATION ISSUED FIRST TIME IN 1856

Will Pass Into History September 1 and Mechanical Equipment Will Be Sold by Its New

THE newspaper world has had a sensation in the announcement that M. H. de Young, of The San Francisco Chronicle, has purchased The San Francisco Morning Call and intends to cisco Chronicie, has purchased the san Francisco Morning Call and intends to put it out of existence.

The Call is the oldest morning paper in San Francisco. It is keenly up to date and has been a strong riyal of The Chronicle. It was first issued in 1856 by a cooperative bend of even printers and made a success from the start. It is now more than fifty years old, has a perfect up-to-date; newspaper plant, the Associated Press and other important newspaper franchises, and no one could hardly suspect that the paper was for sale or could be purchased from its present owner, John D. Spreckels, as under the management of W. W. Chapin the paper has made marked progress during the last year.

Mr. De Young announces that The Morning Call will cease publication permanently on September 1 and, with the exception of two or three of the presses, which Mr. Dé Young proposes to utilize, the entire mechanical plant, office furniture and fixtures will be sold.

De Young's Long Service.

Mr. M. H. de Young, the man who figures in this great newspaper change, is the only one emailing of the active, real great pour allowed in the active, real great louralists of our country. He newspaper country is not newspaper as well as the newspaper ricles of our country. He newspaper ricles of our country. He newspaper ricles of our country. He newspaper of a great manager of a great newspaper since 1865 a period of more than forty-eight years. Probably no other man alive today in the country has occupied such a position continuously for that period.

The San Francisco Chronicle has had a marvelous career. It started in 1865 as The Dramatic Chronicle, and was distributed free daily throughout the streets. From the very start it created marked attention by its peculiar daily crisp criticisms of the daily papers of that city, and its office was the gatherary men in the history of the country. These men were constant contributors to The Chronicle, and helped create its name and fame, which has endured ever since.

Mark Twain made his headquarters at that time in the office of The San Francisco Chronicle, writing for it, and also daily writing his famous Carson Appeal letters.

LAWYERS DECLARE "THIRD DEGREE" DOES NOT EXIST

Marriage Evasion Act Would Prohibit Wedding in Other States of Persons Declared Incligible.

ST. LOUIS, Friday, Aug. 15.—A summary of the reports to be made by various committees of the American Bar Association at the annual meeting of the association in Montreal next month was made public here today by members of the Missouri council.

The committee on jurisprudence and law reform will report on the subject of the "third degree" in police work. The report will say in substance that the third degree, as depicted in many newspapers, does not exist.

The committee on judicial administration and remedial procedure will criticise the federal statute requiring that a copy of the indictment and a list of grand jury witnesses be furnished those indicted for capital offenses:

Burt Freeman residing in Tacoma, complained that real live dogs unmuzzled and liable at any time ogobble down dole a man or child, were being allowed to ride in the street cars. Freeman desires the commission that the practice an order discontinuing the practice an order discontinuing the practice of the traction officials, and George W. Rounds, superintendent, responded, stating the company would gladly do away with handling the canine traffic; in fact, would welcome an order of the commission to this effect, but suggesting that the corporation did not like to offend its dog-owning patrons by refusing transportation to them.

With both parties anxious for the commission to issue the order, the commission still is hesitating, hoping that perhaps the dog fanciers may intervene and deny the jurisdiction of the commission.

COLLIDES WITH TRAINMAN AND FALLS ON TRACK

Logger is Fatally Injured When Slips Beneath Car Wheels.

OHEHALLIS, Friday, Aug. 15—David Smith, an employe of a logging camp at Meskill on the South Bend branch of the Northern Pacific, was run over by a passenger train at Meskill last night at 9 o'clock. He died at Dryad this morning. Smith jumped from the train after it started out of Meskill and collided with Brakeman Jess Hoops, who was about to get on. Both fell and Smith's legs were thrown across the rail and the wheels passed over them. Hoops had a narrow escape and was bruised by the fall.
